This is a somewhat usual scenario. But if you can you should never be afraid to ask questions. Even if you're afraid of being judged. Not only will you get more help. The way you ask the question will also determine how much help you get in the future. The best way to start a conversation with your teacher, especially if it's just the two of you. The most important things to remember are that you are the most important person in the class. You're the only one who can help yourself. So you need to take care of yourself and your learning process. One of the most effective ways to get started is to ask your teacher questions about the class or the specific course materials. Take this exchange with your teacher as an opportunity to show you're very interested in your classes. If you have a questions, it's best to ask right at the start. And if your teacher is not free to answer right away, find a way to do so as soon as
