Right now in the United States there are 6.5 million homeowners who live in a home that isn't their dream home, according to the National Association of Realtors (NAR). The fact is that a majority of us aren't "in that loop" when it comes to home ownership. So how do you boost your odds of owning a home that's not only the right home for you, but your dream home? Here are seven things you can do to boost your odds of owning your dream home. 1. Buy the best home financing product. We live in a day and age where home financing options are nearly endless. Even if your lenders didn't offer you a beautiful loan with great rates back in 2009, there is still some hope that they might have. Invest
